Doctors who left China to escape Communist decupation should return there at once if they know the first principle of the ethics of their profession, a senior official of the Medical Department told the "China Mail" yesterday.

In a candid suggestion to the physicians who sought refuge in the colony when the Communists took over Peking, Tientsin and Shanghal, Dr. I. Newton, Director of Medical Services, said the people of these cities, more than the people of Hong Kong, require their services and attention.

The first duty of a physician," Dr. Newton declared, "is to be by the side of his patient. Societies Refused Registration

According to the "Wen Wul Pao", a local vernacular newspaper. five Hong Kong societies who have been refused reglatration under the Bocisties Ordinance, are apposited to the Gavernor.

The reason for refusal to register by the Registrar of Bociotics, it was stated, was that these societies were not Hong Kong gocieties but were branches of societies with outside political affiliations.

The societics were stated to be the Chinese Beientiffe Rerearch Society of Hong Kong and Kowloon; the Oversens Chinese Teachers Welfare Association of Hong Kong and Kowlean; the Hong Kong Student Readers Club; the Hung Hung Dramatic Society; and the Chung Shan Youngs Men's Friendship Society.

REDS RELEASE U.S. MUKDEN VICE-CONSUL

Deportation Order For Entire Consulate Staff OBSERVER AT

Washington, November 27.

The U.S. State Department announced today the Chinese Communists at Mukden have released the Vice Consul, Mr. William N. Stokes, and ordered the entire American consulate staff deported.

The deportation order was issued by a Communist People's Court in connection with a spy trial on Saturday in which 10 Chinese, Japanese and Koreans were sentenced, the announcement said.

Mr. Stokes was an enforced "observer" at the trial. This accounted for the fact that he was taken from the consulate by the Communist au- support to the Nationalists by not explain how a photographer thorities and kept away for approximately seven hours.

Observers estimated the odds in favour of Rome as being five to four. A combination of factors—Italy's soft currency, the absence of: any need for capital outlay by the FAO for the acquisition of a site in Rome, and the city's cultural associations—were believed to give the ancient capital a distinct advantage over all other contenders.

Other offers which the delegates have before them have been made by Denmark, Switzerland, the United Nations and the United States. The Danish site is in Copenhagen. Four alternative sites in the Geneva area have been offered by Switzerland. The United Nations proposed to locate the FAO at its hendquarters in New York. Washington, November 27, American, British and Canadian officials meet here on Monday in a new attempt to reforge their wartime atomic partnership in the face of angry controversy over the proposed exhange of atomic weapons knowledge. Democratic Senator Edwin Johnson brought the weapons' issue to a head yesterday, when he accused the chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, David Lilienthal, who had resigned, of being the spearhead of a "nefarious plot" to reveal "super bomb" secrets to Britain and, Canada.

While no other legislator has gone that far, a number of other-Congressmen and Senators, are known to share Mr. Johnson's misgivings. One of the biggest problems facing the three-power conferes will be how to overcome that opposition.

Some American officials hope a new sense of reality to the conversations
